Title: Thunderbird and the radioactive apple

I had one week of holiday before I started at a new school and I was terrified, what if the kids did not like me. I'm Felipe Santos aka Thunderbird. Anyway, I had one week of holiday and I did not know what to do. At least I had my friends coming to the same school. How bad could it be. I climbed up my treehouse and there my friends were. "Where were you, we have been everywhere looking for you." Said Maya, my sister. "We wanted to tell you that we found out that a satellite got hit by a shower of meteors and they are coming to our town." Said Jack, my best friend. "Do you want to go see it?" "Sure." I said uncomfortably.

I went with my friends to go see it and when we got there, this huge meteor almost hit us. Unfortunately, it hit our picnic. We pushed as hard as we could to move it but some of our food was destroyed. We ate the rest of the apples and we went home. Tiredly, my Mum let Jack sleep at our house. I woke up in the middle of the night and I looked outside only to see that an alien empire was outside. I woke up my friends but an alien grabbed me before I could wake them. He grabbed his sword and tried to injure me with it but for some reason he fell from the roof and ran away.

When we looked at each other we were all grown ups. I was so scared.

In order to protect our families we had to hide from the aliens. While we were walking in the forest looking for shelter I fell off an edge of a cliff. And it was like I was walking on air. I looked down and there was a shield holding me. My sister Maya did that, she had powers. "Maya, you have powers." said Jack. Maya helded the shield to create a path for us and we continued looking for shelter. When it was almost night this jaguar came and tried to attack us but we stood guard and Jack shot him with his laser hands he had powers to. Everyone has powers except for me.

All of a sudden, an alien team attacked us, Maya and Jack tried to defend themselves but they were seriously injured. Suddenly an instinct in me took over and I grabbed them with all my might and defeated them and the alien army's General. He quickly grabbed Maya and Jack, who were in bad shape, and took them to his spaceship. I felt so alone.

I had failed , how was I supposed to defeat a whole alien armada and rescue two adults(actually children). Yes I had cool animal powers but that did not make a difference going against millions of aliens. But I also did not want to go in history as the coward of the town. So I sneaked attacked an alien and put his armour on . I entered their supreme ship where all of the prisoners were and I went to the controls room. Thankfully, the aliens spoke english, so I understood everything they said . They said that the ship was going to attack the whole planet and that our town was going to be the center of our planet. They also said they were going to drop a bomb on us before they take over. I asked the aliens where the prisoners were and I went to the place. I broke them out but by the time we got out they had put a bomb in the Mayor's house. We captured the General and there was a chip on his neck someone was controlling him. I took off the chip and the General told me who did it to him.

He told me that the emperor of the aliens had commanded the alien sorcerer to put a magical chip in his neck. But I had enough strength to take it out. There still was a bomb in the town so we had a mission to save everyone. Me, Jack and Maya grabbed a grappling hook and evacuated the Mayor. While, Jack and Maya took the Mayor to safety I ran to grab the bomb but I was too late so for the sake of the town I covered the bomb and I survived. I looked outside and it was like nothing happened. I turned back into a kid and I went to say goodbye to the aliens before the neighbours woke up. We went back to the house and we slept the whole day.
